

Know your District Chairman

Nallini Olivannan is a member of the Inner Wheel Club of Madras North, which she joined at its inception in 1995. She is in fact the Charter Secretary of her club. She led the club to distinction in her presidential year 2000 – 2001 and has gained 25 years of enriching Inner Wheel knowledge. Being the club's silver jubilee this year, it is indeed a matter of pride that Nallini is the Chairman of Inner Wheel District 323 for 2019-20.

Initially, at the district level, she was the Polio Plus Co-ordinator during the Chairmanship of her best Inner Wheel force – PDC Bhamini Parthasarathy, in the year 2007-2008. Nallini then entered the District Executive Committee in the year 2013-2014 and has accomplished activities in each position with planning and innovation. As District Editor, she facilitated in bringing in a healthy amount to the District through the Souvenir. As District ISO, she helped revive the combined ISO program for city plus clubs. The very next year, as District Treasurer, she was awarded 10 stars for her performance by the Association Treasurer. As District Secretary, she was instrumental in organizing a health camp for Inner Wheel members at VHS, Taramani. During her stint as District ESO, she encouraged and assisted the formation of four new clubs, thereby giving the District its 50th club. Nallini has attended the Triennial Conventions at Hyderabad, Kolkatta and Pune 2019. She was the District Voting Delegate and had the honor of presenting two proposals put forward by our District at the Pune Triennial 2019.

From the moment of her graduation from the renowned Dr. Ambedkar Law College, Chennai and her entry into the Bar Council of Tamil Nadu, to this day, Nallini has remained an inseparable part of the Indian legal fraternity. Her tryst with the legal profession began with a 9-year stint in the public sector LIC Housing Finance Ltd.
